Respect Life Corner Forgive – Can We? Do

We? Everyone experiences conflicts and hurts; that’s a constant. It’s what we do with those hurts that varies. Christ desires that we forgive those hurts and allow the Holy Spirit to heal and bring new life into our world. Forgiving somebody does not, in any way, excuse the hurt that was done. It is a decision to let go of retribution and to allow God to begin to heal. When we let go of the hurt, God can start to redeem it and bring good from it. Learn, Act, Connect, Pray: Pray the “Our Father” slowly. Ask yourself, do I have mercy in my heart to forgive those who have ‘trespassed against me’? Catholics have the Sacrament of Reconciliation, if they’re willing to use it. The grace of the Sacrament of Reconciliation is a powerful way to open up our souls to the Holy Spirit’s refreshing life.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time It is truly right and just.

We can get used to private clubs, to closed groups, to in-crowds, to members-only. But both Isaiah and Jesus make room for the foreigner this day. When there is similar belief and great faith, we are all alike. Outsiders can become insiders. Everyone can belong. And in God’s house, God’s kingdom, that is absolutely true. It is right. It is just.

- Of whom do I say, they do not belong?
- How can I widen my circle to include more people?
- How can I do what is truly right and just?

You may be only one person in the world, but you may also be the world to one person.
