Respect Life Corner: Pentecost: Feast of Unity, Understanding, and Sharing; "On that morning, fifty days after Easter, a powerful wind blew over Jerusalem and the flame of the Holy Spirit descended on the gathered disciples. It came to rest upon the head of each of them and ignited in them a divine fire, a fire of love, capable of transforming things. Their fear disappeared, their hearts were filled with new strength, their tongues were loosened and they began to speak freely, in such a way that everyone could understand the news that Jesus Christ had died and was risen. On Pentecost, where there was division and incomprehension, unity and understanding were born." (Pope Benedict XVI, Pentecost 2012) Learn, Act, Connect, Pray: Call upon the power of the Holy Spirit to empower us to spread unity in a divided and intolerant world and share our resources with those who have-not. Holy Spirit, may we respect all life because You, God, are the Source of Life.

"90 percent of life is showing up." What, though, do we do with the other 10 percent? The story of God calling the prophet Samuel attests that just showing up won't take you the whole way. The first two times Samuel heard a voice calling him in the night, he responded only, "Here I am!" The priest Eli, knowing something of God's ways, informs the young man that merely presenting himself in the holy place is insufficient. Samuel must also declare himself the servant of the Lord. Likewise, we should not rely on just showing up for the Lord. The final 10 percent is the part that makes the difference.
