November 1st, 2026 • The Solemnity of All Saints

Jesus reminds us that holiness is a calling for each of us, lived through everyday acts of love, mercy, humility, and service.

A LETTER FROM FR. JIM

Dear Parishioners,

Happy All Saints Day! It is hard to believe that November is here. November is month set aside to remember the faithful departed, particularly those who have died this past year. Although we don't talk about it much, Purgatory is still part of Catholic doctrine. Unfortunately, we tend to equate Purgatory as a type of Hell. Purgatory means that we are on the way to Heaven. However, before we "stand" before our all-loving and all-merciful God, we must be "cleansed" even "purged of our imperfections."

For me, since I am in recovery, Purgatory is the opportunity to have the final "turning over" of my character defects so I can fully embrace the perfect glory of God. Some would say Purgatory is experienced now, I can see that. I also believe in Purgatory after death. HOWEVER, time does not exist after death. So, Purgatory might be as quick as a flash. Who's to say? All I know is that Jesus promised eternal life to all who believe. Do you believe? I do!

Peace,
Fr. Jim

FORMATION

All Saints: Living the Pillars of Stewardship

We remember St. Martin de Porres (November 3), a humble Dominican brother who lived a life of extraordinary love and compassion.

St. Martin demonstrated Hospitality by welcoming everyone with kindness, especially the poor and forgotten. Through Formation, he grew in faith and sought to follow Jesus more closely each day. Prayer was at the heart of his life, giving him strength to serve God and others. His commitment to Service was evident in his tireless care for the sick, hungry, and those in need.

St. Martin reminds us that stewardship is not simply about what we give, but how we live. Through small acts of kindness, a commitment to prayer, a willingness to grow in faith, and service to others, we too can become instruments of Christ's love.

This week's challenge: How can you follow St. Martin's example by putting one of the four pillars into action this week?

Holy Spirit, we ask you to enliven our souls with love for the Holy Trinity until we can meet you in heaven as they have. We pray you bring all Holy Souls in Purgatory speedily to their heavenly home. We pray this in Jesus name, Amen.

SEMINARIAN OUTREACH

We are blessed to have 11 seminarians currently discerning God's call to the priesthood. Each week, we will feature one of our seminarians and share his mailing address. We invite you to take a few moments to send him a card, note of encouragement, or assurance of your prayers.

A simple message can mean so much during the years of prayer, study, formation, and discernment. Let us surround these men with the prayer and support of our parish family as they continue to listen and respond to God's call.
